just a word ...

by Fr. Harvey

At this time of year when nostalgia runs high with graduations, weddings and anniversaries in abundance, we become particularly conscious of the many bonds which unite us and the personal influence which others leave with us.

Today, we celebrate the Baccalaureate Mass honoring our High School Seniors of 1972. In these days when statistics can stagger us and people with visions and dreams recreate us, we honestly hope that our Seniors will not be mere statistics but Christian men and women alive with the vision that faith brings us. To our Seniors, I would like to offer the following thoughts.

" 'Is that all there is;
is that all there is?'
Plaintive words
from a song that reviews
a series of recollections
of an unhappy and frustrated past.
Are you ever moved
to ask this question
as it concerns your experience
in the Christian faith:
'Is that ALL there is?'
Have I tasted all the joys and all the comforts of Christian commitment?

The answer is a resounding NO.

NO because the Christian experience
is an adventure toward God,
and we have not yet arrived.

NO because, as the philosophers say,
God is always greater and larger than you have ever succeeded in realizing Him.
There is more to God than any of us can experience
of Him in our lifetime.

At most, we have perhaps
'touched the hem of His garment.'
Undreamed of satisfactions await us
as we make our way toward God."
(Turro)

In this very inadequate way, our thoughts turn to four Sisters who have greatly influenced many persons in our parish.

Sister Aurelia (Irene Gray) celebrates her Golden Anniversary as a Religious today. Sister served our parish most faithfully from 1957, the year our High School opened, until 1970 when the High School closed. As Sister Librarian and later as Sister Principal and as always Sister Most Dedicated, we are appreciative once again for the Spirit she shared while among us and for her genuine influence which now is embodied in the lives of those she touched. Sister celebrates her 50 years along with Mother Genevieve, a sister of Ted Weber. Our warm and thankful congratulations go out to both of them.

This month we bid adieu, with mixed emotions, to three of the Sisters who are presently serving us here at St. John's. Sister Catherine Detloff, Sister Jacqueline Eustace and Sister Carol Schlarman will be leaving us during these next weeks to assume new and different roles in the Christian apostolate.

Sister Catherine came to St. John's, her second mission, in 1969. As an elementary teacher in our school, she won the affection of both parents and young students. This past year Sister has been a full-time student at E.M.U. while heading up our Pre-School Program and assisting with part-time secretarial duties in the parish. Sister will be in Chicago during the coming year.

Sister Jacqueline, who could be called a modern-day pioneer, leaves St. John's after serving our parish for two years as our first Religious Education Coordinator. In spite of assuming a position for which few paths had been charted, the results of Sister's leadership and professional competence are quite evident today. The cooperation she requested and received from the Education Commission and the participants in the many parish educational programs as well as the Ypsilanti School System, are a tribute to her abilities. Sister will become Elementary Religious Education Coordinator in Walled Lake.

Sister Carol Schlarman completes five years of active service to our parish this June. Sister was a Primary teacher in our Elementary school and later was named Principal of the school prior to its closing last year. During the past year as a member of the Parish Pastoral Team, Sister Carol has been Facilitator of the Service Commission working with many parish volunteers in giving viability to this very important Commission as well as cooperating and serving with several other Church and Educational groups around Ypsilanti. Sister Carol will join the faculty at Marygrove College in Detroit.

These few words do little to express our thanks for the life these three Sisters have shared with us. As they leave us, we can only assure them that we are truly appreciative of the unique gifts each has made to the Christian life of this parish and hope that they will find happiness in their new areas of service. We know that they will be back to pay a visit now and then.

A Farewell Party will be held on Tuesday evening at 7:30 P.M. in the parish hall to bid adieu to Sister Cathy and Sister Carol. (Sister Jackie left this weekend in order to return to her sister's family who recently suffered the death of their husband and father.)

To the four Sisters to whom we pay tribute today--

"Doing the work of God
among men
is sometimes like skywriting
with one's life.
One writes the message
large
but one
does not clearly see
what one has achieved or whether
anyone has taken notice,
much less understood." (Turro)

REPEAL OF NEW YORK STATE ABORTION-ON-DEMAND LAW

The New York State Legislature has repealed New York's two-year-old abortion-on-demand law. If the measure is signed by Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller, the New York law which allows abortions on demand up to the 24th week of pregnancy would be replaced by the former statute allowing an abortion only when the life of the mother is imperiled.

The action of the New York State Legislature came in response to increasing public indignation to the killing of innocent human beings through the practice of abortion. In the past two years, upwards of 350,000 babies have been aborted and in New York City alone, it has been estimated that one human life is exterminated every three minutes around the clock. Speaking from the floor of the New York State Senate, Senator James H. Donovan, Republican, called abortions "barbarious slaughter of innocents." He added, "Abortion has become New York's newest and most profitable business."

Since the news media in Michigan can be expected to down play the news of this repeal of the New York law, you may want to mention this news to others.

The abortion-on-demand law repealed by the New York State Legislature is remarkably similar to the proposed legislature now pending before the Michigan State Legislature which may ultimately have to be decided by the voters of Michigan in the November election. The proposed Michigan law would allow abortions on demand up to the 20th week of pregnancy.

The legislature and people of Michigan would do well to take a lesson from the tragic New York experience with abortion-on-demand.

IN THE PEACE OF CHRIST

A long-time parishioner of St. John's passed away suddenly, Tuesday, June 6. The Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated for Mrs. Anastasia Oleson on Friday morning, June 9, in our church by Father Harvey. Mrs. Oleson, age 70, lived at 5896 W. Michigan.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ladoyt (Delores) Sharp and Mrs. Ronald (Juanita) Blystone, both of our parish, and a step-son, James Oleson of Southgate. Five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren also survive.

Burial followed the Funeral Mass in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Our prayerful sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Oleson. May she share the peace of Christ and may her good works follow her.

Please keep the soul of Mrs. Myrtle Sechinger of Jackson in your prayers. Mrs. Sechinger died suddenly on Thursday. She is the sister of Mr. Ted Weber of our parish.

WED IN CHRIST

Mr. Gary A. Niemi, son of the Robert Niemi's of Clawson, was wed to Miss Patrice Ennen, daughter of the Jack Ennens, formerly of our parish and now residents of Bryan, Ohio, and granddaughter of Mrs. Oramel Ennen, deceased of our parish, in a ceremony at St. John's Church on Saturday, June 3, 1972. Witnesses were Conrad Patrick and Anne Wallace. Father Marvin A. Young performed the ceremony and was assisted by Deacon Rev. Mr. Timothy Szott.

May their days be filled with love.

Things People Wonder About

Have you noticed the lovely new lace and white cloth enhancing the altar these past few weeks? The cloth was a donation of the Motto family in memory of Mrs. Mary Grabowski, mother of Mrs. Motto, who died in April. The Motto's also took care of the flower bill for the Marian Day in memory of the deceased. May I express a grateful thanks from the entire parish for your generosity.

Our first Marian Day was a successful event for those who attended or participated, even though the day itself was cold and rainy. Inside the church the thought-provoking Mass and meditations accompanying the rosary services throughout the afternoon provided the spiritual brightness of the day. The evening ceremony and candlelight procession not only gave us, who were a part of the services, the chance to honor Mary, but those who watched us, from the traffic surrounding us to the students in the house next door. Everyone shared in the mutual expression of honor given to the mother of God. Many old friends found good conversation at the ice cream social following the service. Let us hope that this first Marian Day will instill a desire for many more in the years to come.

THANK YOU

Dear Friends,

How can one adequately say Thank You for life? St. John's welcomed me into its family from the beginning. By your love you have given me life, and I have grown in the Christian life. You have taken me into your lives, and I have become part of you. I suppose I can only tell you of my gratitude by extending the love you have shown me. I, too, shall seek to give life by giving it. May the spirit of the Lord continue to be shown daily in your lives.

God bless all of you,
Sister Carol Schlarman

Don't forget the BAKE SALE after the 7:00, 9:00 and 11:00 A.M. Masses today. Treat your family to some homemade baked goods.

This Privileged Hour . . .

by Father King

'I have fought the good fight, I have run the course, I have kept the faith,' says the good Paul. Each of these phrases has a bit to add to the flavor of my feelings as we conclude our program here in Rome.

Sr. Carol Schlarman wrote something to the effect that she expects to see a 'new' me; Deacon Ken makes no personal observations but does reflect a number of reactions that some people--who, he points out, don't know me very well, but expect something like 'something of a scholar, an involved clergyman, certainly a humanitarian ...' almost makes me afraid to come home and either dash hopes to the ground or burst illusions. But both to prepare everyone and also to give visible evidence that Rome has truly renewed me, I enclose my most recent photograph which a passing photographer happened to snap at an unsuspecting time as I was relaxing in the Patio and taking my afternoon stroll. Now, surely anyone who sees that will have to say. . .'There is a man that looks renewed!" Well, I say, 'if you can't fight 'em, join 'em.'

THIS IS RENEWAL?

It would be, indeed, impossible to even recount the impressions, the experience, the adventures of these past three months, let alone attempt to verbalize them.

The places I have been and seen have, in themselves, been the fulfillment of a dream of a lifetime. When I turn my mind to the vast array of men that have spoken to us, many of them quite well known for what they have published, and all bringing a certain kind of expertise in their particular areas of study, words come to the surface--each expressing a reality, each one limping off because of inadequacy; each express a truth but one that can be understood only when taken in comparison to another that seems almost contradictory. So we find such words as 'positive,' 'radical,' encouraging, challenging, enlightening, humbling, and on and on it can go.

Perhaps the best word I can find is 'hopeful.' There is a tension I find at the very core of the church--and how could it be otherwise? Particularly in this place--which encompasses so many centuries of the church's existence. Much of it regrettable, much of it shameful, much of it glorious and inspiring. The vestiges of all--the regret, the shame, as well as the glory and inspiration, are to be displayed like pieces of evidence at a trial. And it is in the courtroom of human civilization that the church stands now I think as never before.

But, as I view the evidence, my mind's eye turns and finds that we are all in this courtroom--each of us is the evidence; each of us is a 'witness.' Each of us bears the responsibility for the proclamation of the good news that now, as in the past, somehow emerges even through the pores of flesh that is human.

Bavarian Festival. There's a fried chicken dinner and lots to do from a parade to a dance. Meet at St. John's in Ypsilanti at 10:00 A.M. for an enjoyable day. For more information, call Tom at 971-9076, Margaret or Sue at 482-1942.
